

China Expo Fireproof mortar spraying

As we all know, China International Expo will be held in Shanghai China in 2010. One of the famous Expo buildings named "Expo Center", located in Bin Jiang greenbelt Expo No.B area, the construction area is about 140,000 square meters, expo center will be one of the most important permanent venues after the International Expo, during the expo period, it will be the celebration center, news center and forum center.

As a national key project, construction quality, construction progress has been paid attention to the issue of Shanghai municipal government's great concern. Expo Center, is the largest steel structure construction project, everyone pays attention to the internal fireproof mortar spraying. Including select fireproof mortar and select spraying machines. Putzmeister develops, produces and supplies one of the most comprehensive ranges of high performance plastering and screeding machines. Through the competition, finally they choose Putzmeister S5EV to spray the fireproof mortar in the Expo Center.

The fireproof mortar spray area is about 10,000 square meters, at 30m high every steel ceiling girders need to spray fireproof mortar. So they use four ID25 mortar hose, thickness of 1.2cm, working pressure 10bar. Their working time is 8 hours each day, S5EV enables a processing rate of approx. 100m² per hour, after 15 working days they finished spraying by the end of 2008.

The project manager is very proud of our machine, extremely pleased with the high performance of S5EV. He said "Expo center fireproof mortar spraying project can be completed so quickly and efficiently with high quality, based on the high performance of Putzmeister's mortar machines and their good after-sales service. We very trust in Putzmeister's products, so at the beginning of 2009, we will move to "China Pavilion" to spraying the fireproof mortar. Let us look forward to S5EV's good performance again.

Our aim is to make your work easier, to make our customer get satisfaction, with the principle of "Serving-improving-creating values", Putzmeister Shanghai is committed to products quality, innovation, and excellent service.
